LOUIS DRETCHEN,

Plaintiff,

v.

ALLAN PHARMACEUTICAL LLC,

Defendant.

----- X

ECF CASE

3. I was present at an introductory meeting with Mr. Dretchen and Neil Sirkin at the Morton's Steakhouse in Stamford, Connecticut. During our meeting, Dretchen was informed that Allan Pharmaceutical planned to establish a research and development/sales office somewhere in Pennsylvania but the majority of his sales support functions would be based in Mississippi.

4. I did not recruit or interview Mr. Dretchen for a job with Allan Pharmaceutical. I did not offer him a position or participate in his hire, supervision, or the decision to terminate his employment.

5. I never met with Mr. Dretchen in New York.

6. When I introduced Mr. Dretchen to my brother, I had absolutely no idea that Mr. Dretchen was a convicted felon or that he was not a registered pharmacist.

7. Although I frankly do not know why Mr. Dretchen believes that he needs me for his lawsuit, I am readily available in Mississippi to participate in the case if either party so requires.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.

Dated at Southbury, Connecticut
this 8th day of January, 2008.
